

Catalina State Park, AZ

Your 2009 family camp with Troop 648!
March 20-22 – the first weekend of spring!
Friday afternoon until Sunday noon

Catalina State park is just North of Tucson within the Coronado National Forest.

Facilities include;

A great group campsite, picnic tables, grills, trails for hiking and biking, restrooms, showers, and a gift shop

5,500 acres, 5,000 saguaros, 150 species of birds and hopefully wildflowers

Sign up!

What to Bring;

Tent or RV's, all your camping gear including sunscreen and any activities you would like i.e. baseballs etc.

Saturday Night Potluck; bring your own beverages and meat (coals will be provided), also a dish to share.

Followed by a campfire and skits/jokes/songs

Questions – see Mikey Finnegan or Mr. Martin